Day 1 – Arrival in Valença, Portugal

Welcome to Portugal! Your Camino adventure begins in Valença, a charming historic town on the banks of the Minho River, overlooking Spain.
After checking into your accommodation, take some time to explore Valença's impressive 17th-century fortress, stroll through its cobbled streets and enjoy the traditional cuisine of northern Portugal.
This is the perfect opportunity to relax, discover the atmosphere of the Portuguese Camino and prepare for the walking journey ahead.

Overnight: Valença

Day 2 – Valença to O Porriño | 24 km / 15 miles

Your first walking day begins with a memorable crossing from Portugal into Spain over the historic International Bridge spanning the Minho River.
Explore the medieval town of Tui, with its impressive cathedral and charming historic streets, before continuing through the Galician countryside.
The route takes you along woodland paths, small villages and peaceful rural landscapes as you make your way towards O Porriño.

Overnight: O Porriño

Day 3 – O Porriño to Redondela | 18 km / 11 miles

Today's Camino takes you deeper into Galicia, following a combination of quiet country lanes, forest paths and traditional villages.
Although shorter than the previous stage, the route includes some uphill and downhill sections, rewarding you with lovely views of the surrounding countryside.
Your destination is Redondela, a historic town where the Portuguese Central and Coastal Camino routes come together.

Overnight: Redondela

Day 4 – Redondela to Pontevedra | 21 km / 13 miles

One of the most scenic stages of the Portuguese Camino awaits you today.
Walk through peaceful woodland, enjoy views towards the Vigo estuary and cross the beautiful medieval bridge at Ponte Sampaio, spanning the Verdugo River.
Continue along shaded paths and through traditional Galician villages before arriving in Pontevedra, one of Galicia's most charming historic cities.
Take time to explore its lively old town, pedestrian streets and welcoming cafés.
Overnight: Pontevedra

Day 5 – Pontevedra to Caldas de Reis | Approximately 25 km / 15.5 miles

Leave Pontevedra behind and follow a beautiful section of the Portuguese Camino through forests, vineyards, farmland and quiet rural communities.
The gentle landscapes of Galicia offer plenty of opportunities to enjoy the peaceful rhythm of walking.
Your destination is Caldas de Reis, a small town famous for its thermal waters and long-standing spa tradition.
After a rewarding day on the trail, enjoy the town's relaxed atmosphere and discover its historic streets.

Overnight: Caldas de Reis

Day 6 – Caldas de Reis to Padrón | Approximately 23 km / 14.3 miles

Continue your Camino through green valleys, wooded trails and peaceful Galician villages.
Today's route offers a wonderful combination of natural scenery and pilgrimage history as you approach Padrón, a town deeply connected to the traditions of Saint James.
Explore its historic streets, discover its cultural heritage and perhaps try the famous Padrón peppers, one of Galicia's best-known local specialties.
With Santiago now within reach, the excitement of completing your Camino begins to grow.

Overnight: Padrón

Day 7 – Padrón to Santiago de Compostela | 25 km / 16 miles

Today is the day you've been walking towards!
Your final stage leads through Galician villages, woodland paths and increasingly urban landscapes as you approach Santiago de Compostela.
After several days on the Camino, arriving at the magnificent Cathedral of Santiago and stepping into Praza do Obradoiro is a truly memorable experience.
Take your time to celebrate your achievement, soak up the atmosphere and reflect on the journey you've completed.
If you have fulfilled the official pilgrimage requirements, you can also request your Compostela certificate.
Enjoy your final evening exploring Santiago's historic old town, its lively squares and traditional Galician restaurants.

Overnight: Santiago de Compostela

Day 8 – Departure from Santiago de Compostela

After breakfast, your self-guided Camino adventure comes to an end.
Depending on your travel plans, you may wish to extend your stay in Santiago de Compostela or continue exploring Galicia and Portugal.
Portugal Outside can help you arrange additional nights or private transfers upon request.
Take home unforgettable memories, new experiences and the satisfaction of having completed your own Camino de Santiago.

Buen Camino, and see you again!
